South Jersey Law Firm Donates $10,000 for Science Education on the Camden Waterfront

Camden, NJ– On June 21, 2005 James H. Carll, of Archer & Greiner, Attorneys at Law, presented a check in the amount of $10,000 to Brian DuVall, President and CEO of the not-for-profit New Jersey Academy for Aquatic Sciences (NJAAS). Leadership with the Academy hope the funds will help create a Discovery Classroom on-site at Adventure Aquarium.

As the former operator of the New Jersey State Aquarium, NJAAS has been committed to aquatic research and education for more than 15 years. Currently, the Academy provides numerous programs in the field of aquatic science and education. These include CAUSE (Camden Aquarium Science Education) a very successful youth program in Camden City, as well as extensive conservation and research projects abroad.

The firm, Archer and Greiner is based in Haddonfield, New Jersey and well-known for its philanthropic efforts and community involvement. Jim Carll serves as Chairman of the Academy's Board of Trustees and stated at a recent meeting of the board that his firm is "more than happy" to support the mission of NJAAS.
